ECOTOURS IN CANOES

ALL THE WAY - 3 days self guided

The famous original self guided canoe trip allows you to fully explore the wonderful upper Ord River as you paddle the whole 55kms back to Kununurra, continuing on from a "Paddle in Paradise". You can explore all of the bush walks and waterholes from your guide book at your own pace and stay at "Stonewall Camp" for your second night, returning at your leisure through Lilly Creek Lagoon on the afternoon of day 3. This tour is the best value as you arrive back in town under your own steam. We'll come & pick you up when you call in. $220pp

PADDLE IN PARADISE 2 days self guided

An overnight adventure starts with all the attractions of a "Sunrise Sunset" tour, plus the experience of camping at the environmentally designed "Cooliman Camp" secluded in the bush, including all camping gear. You can identify lots of wildlife with your guidebook, which also has camping and paddling tips and maps you can explore at your leisure during the 9km 2nd day. Around 4pm our boat will pick you up from "Stonewall Camp" for the sunset cruise 23km back to Kununurra. $220pp

only $80pp

SUNRISE - SUNSET 1 day partly guided tour

A magical day on the upper Ord River starts at 6 am with a scenic 75km drive from Kununurra to Lake Argyle lookout, before we teach you how to paddle downstream in a 2 person Canadian canoe through the magnificent Carr-Boyd Ranges. You can stop and walk, swim and photograph as much or as little as you like. Your guide book offers info and advice as you cruise along in the morning, then at about 1pm your guide will pick you up in Crocadilly and take you for a bushwalk to explore rainforest hideaways and swim in spring water holes. During the boat cruise back to Kununurra you'll see Kimberley creatures in their natural habitat and a glorious sunset before we return through the wetlands of Lake Kununurra. This tour is for the moderately fit adventurer. We supply an esky to keep your lunch & drinks cool and waterproof equipment for your camera. $220pp

We offer discounts for cash, kids, groups (> 6), using your own gear & repeat customers!
